

A Message From Nelson Squires

Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer

We are pleased to announce the hiring of Sean Grasby as the President, EECOL Canada. Sean comes to us from his previous position as President & CEO of Xperigo where he was responsible for running all facets of the business. Xperigo's primary business is to create innovative mobility products and services to automotive partners and their customers.

Sean has 20 years of experience across a broad cross-section of industries and possesses a proven track record of developing strategies, aligning objectives and driving growth of businesses. Sean successfully transformed the Xperigo business through developing key business strategies and diligent execution.

Prior to joining Xperigo, Sean held senior management positions at Acklands-Grainger where he led the transformation of the Customer Solutions Group. Sean serves on the Board of Directors of the Young Presidents' Organization (YPO) and is a founding board member of the Global Assistance Alliance. He holds a B.Sc. degree from the New York Institute of Technology and an MBA from Ivey School of Business, Western University.

Please join me in welcoming Sean to the team.
