

Grant Iwasa Joins Roney Marketing to Grow Datacom Business

Roney Marketing is pleased to announce that we have hired Grant Iwasa to help us grow our business in Ontario. His sole focus will be to help us grow and develop the datacom side of our business. He comes to us with an extensive background and understanding of the datacom and fibre field that will only continue to require more resources and understanding.

Roney Marketing looks forward to continuing to support our existing channel partners and we look forward to welcoming our new customers that will soon experience customer service that has made us an agency that manufacturers can rely on to serve their sales needs and requirements in Ontario.
